Welcome to Wild Coast Tented Lodge

LUXURY HOTEL IN YALA

Wild Coast Tented Lodge is adjacent to Yala National Park, renowned for its leopard population. This spectacular luxury tented camp is situated on a rugged, empty beach, overlooking the Indian Ocean. The unique design sees the man-made structures blending seamlessly into the surrounding landscape, thanks to the use of carefully selected natural materials. The use of arched fabric structures allows each of the 28 tents to take on the shape and color of the rocks and boulders that lay scattered nearby, whilst a clever layout in the shape of a leopard's paw print alludes to the area's most famous resident. The open-air bamboo-clad Ten Tuskers bar and Dining Pavillion – designed to mirror the boulders scattered across the golden beach beyond – wrap around the resort's enormous free-form swimming pool. Guests can enjoy creative daily-changing menus of authentic Sri Lankan cuisine in the restaurant, as well as sundowner cocktails and picnics al fresco on the sand dunes, watching dusk settle over the Indian Ocean.

SANTANI

https://www.santani.lk/?utm_source=google&utm_medium=gmb

We chose to design our contemporary dwellings based on the concept of the 'ambalama', which is the Sri Lankan word meaning 'place of rest.' Historically, pilgrims and traders moved around this sun-kissed island on foot. Simple shelters called ambalama came into being, offering these travellers somewhere safe to rest up for the next leg of a long journey. This human need to rest has not changed; today's travellers too are in need of a place to rest up, along the journey of life.

Stylish and utterly comfortable, our interiors too are deliberately minimal. As in ancient Buddhist meditation caves in the mountains surrounding Santani, this lack of distraction allows you to focus your mind solely on slowing it down. To further support your efforts to 'reset,' the rooms do not have televisions. While digital detox is a key component of the Santani experience, we do offer in-room WiFi on demand.

By blurring the distinction between inside and out, these private retreats invite you to rest, relax or meditate while inhaling the pure fresh air and taking in the pristine, truly inspiring scenery around you.

The property has 16 Mountain View Chalets that overlook the surrounding mountain range.

LUNGANGA

LUNUGANGA

<http://www.lunuganga.com/index.php#about>

No place reveals the soul of Geoffrey Bawa, the acclaimed Sri Lankan architect, better than his country home, Lunuganga. When Bawa purchased the site in 1948, it was nothing more than a derelict rubber estate sitting on a promontory in the Dedduwa Lake, 2km inland from the Bentota coast. But over the next fifty years, he painstakingly transformed it into one of the most seductive, passionate pleasure gardens of the twentieth century.

There are five private suites across the Lunuganga Estate available for reservation. They were built in different periods of Bawa's career and incorporate motifs and ideas from the projects he was working on at the time. The suites are preserved as they existed during the lifetime of the architect and are decorated with a resplendent mixture of antique and modern furniture, and traditional and contemporary art; the very tasteful, eclectic aesthetic that was Bawa's hallmark. Each of the suites has a highly unique character and offers distinctive vistas across the estate. All suites have air conditioning, optional mosquito netting, and attached bathrooms with hot/cold showers.

The central house is a 1930s plantation bungalow that Bawa completely remodeled over the years to create vantages of garden and water. Common rooms include the sitting room and veranda in the main house, as well as the Garden Room, an airy and luminous double-height structure built almost entirely with salvaged materials, located at the southern edge of the Eastern Terrace about 50m away. Scattered throughout the gardens are a variety of further common spaces including terraces open to vistas, breezes, and sunlight, and garden pavilions – the Roman Pavilion and Blue Pavilion – offering seclusion and serenity.
